

Introduction of ARIZONA HUMANITIES

Hello and welcome! My name is [your name] and I am a Board Member of Arizona Humanities, the Arizona affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Our goal at Arizona Humanities is to provide opportunities for Arizonans to explore our shared human experience through discussion, learning and reflection.

We are honored to have been able to provide some financial support to the [host organization] to help bring this program to you. Please see our card or visit our website at azhumanities.org for information on other programs and ways that you can help support quality humanities programs in Arizona.

We also hope you will take the time at the end of the program to give us feedback on your experience here today.

Thank you for coming!

TIPS:

- Introduce yourself to the host when you arrive and let them know you are a board member. Thank them for partnering with us.
- Please remember to bring rack cards to hand out. It is best to hand these out to people as they enter/exit and thank them for coming.
- Wear your Arizona Humanities name badge. It is helpful for people to identify you, and learn about our connection to the program.
- Look for acknowledgement of Arizona Humanities. Is there signage when you enter the building? In the meeting room? In the program? Is Arizona Humanities mentioned by the host or by the speaker?
- Please complete the e-survey and tell us about your experience. It is a quick survey that captures information that will help us improve future programs.

QUICK FACTS on Arizona Humanities:

- Founded in 1973
- Provides grants to libraries, schools, universities, museums, community organizations and more
- Supports programs statewide
- Youth and Literacy, Veterans, Civic Engagement, Community Conversations