

The 7th Annual

Vail Meet Yourself

Celebration at

Cienega High School Student Union

Saturday April 30, 2016 from 3-5 pm

Explorations of Home, Homeland and Places That Matter in Vail with the Tohono O'odham Nation

in two short films:

“Ours Is The Land”

Frances Causey’s newly released film about the Tohono O’odham’s spiritual, cultural, and historic connection to the Santa Rita Mountains landscape.

&

“Voices of Vail – To:wa Kuswo”

Dennis Farris and Vail Preservation Society’s Voices of Vail film series explores Vail’s landscape, and the stories, cultures and people connected to it.

Every Mountain Has a Song

Arizona Certified Main Street

Vail Meet Yourself

After the films, please join us for a public discussion with panel experts about the importance of Vail as our shared Homeland.

Learn about the public art being created by Vail and Tohono O'odham students that will be located in the future Colossal Cave Road widening site.

Meet students participating in the cultural exchange and art project called T-we:m 'att 'am o 'a: g T-ha'icu 'a:ga - Together We Will Tell Our Story

Meet Sandi Garrick, Pima County Project Manager for the Colossal Cave Road widening project. View plans and ask questions.

Help grout a mural to be placed along Vail's Main Street.

Celebrate Vail's 136th Birthday and shared cultural history with Birthday Cake and Chips and Cholla Bud Salsa, and beautify Main Street art installations by purchasing an engraved legacy brick.

Thank you to Our Partners

Arizona Humanities, Tohono O'odham Nation Cultural Center, Dennis Farris, Frances Causey, Vail Unified School District, Colossal Cave Mountain Park, Pima County, University of Arizona Tohono O'odham Student Association

Exploring Home and Homeland in Vail Together We Will Tell Our Story

