

Arizona Humanities Awards

Do you know someone who creates opportunities to explore our shared human experiences?

Nominate individuals, organizations, and/or businesses in your community for their contributions to the humanities and cultural life in Arizona.

Nomination Deadline: Friday, September 30, 2016

Award Categories

Humanities Public Scholar - Dan Shilling Award

Recognize a distinguished humanities scholar who has enhanced public understanding of the role that the humanities play in transforming lives and strengthening communities.

Friend of the Humanities - Juliana Yoder Award

Celebrate individuals, organizations and/or businesses that have made a lasting contribution to the cultural life of their communities through their active support and involvement in promoting the humanities.

Humanities Rising Star Award

Honor a young professional, student, or volunteer with outstanding and creative approaches to engaging the public with the humanities. Considerations will focus on scholarship in the humanities, service to the humanities, the enhancement of public understanding of the humanities and other humanities-related endeavors.

For awards criteria and to submit an online nomination form, visit www.azhumanities.org or call 602-257-0335.

Pictured above left to right: Myrlin Hepworth, Dr. Michael Vincent, Dr. Karen Leong, Rivka Rocchio