

Archaeology Southwest

HUMANITIES GRANTS WORKSHOP

Wednesday, August 24th

5:30-7:30pm

The Bates Mansion

283 N Stone Ave, Tucson, AZ 85701

Honorary Host:

Representative Raúl M. Grijalva

In partnership with Archaeology Southwest

Join us for a workshop and information session to explore grant opportunities with the National Endowment for the Humanities and Arizona Humanities. Meet with representatives from both agencies to learn more about funding for humanities programs you are already running or looking to start. The workshop is free and open to all! Community organizations such as nonprofits, libraries, museums, tribal entities, community colleges, universities, and professors are encouraged to attend.

Light refreshments will be served.

Seating is limited.

RSVP to: Ellie Hutchison
(ehutchison@azhumanities.org /
602-257-0335 x26)

HUMANITIES GRANTS WORKSHOP

Thursday, August 25th
5:30pm-7:30pm

Arizona State University West - UCB 240
4701 W. Thunderbird Rd. Glendale, AZ 85306

Honorary Hosts:
Representative Raúl M. Grijalva
and Representative Ruben Gallego

In partnership with the ASU School of Humanities, Arts, and Cultural Studies

Join us for a workshop and information session to explore grant opportunities with the National Endowment for the Humanities and Arizona Humanities. Meet with representatives from both agencies to learn more about funding for humanities programs you are already running or looking to start. The workshop is free and open to all! Community organizations such as nonprofits, libraries, museums, tribal entities, community colleges, universities, and professors are encouraged to attend.

Light refreshments will be served.

Seating is limited. RSVP to Lucy Berchini (Lucy.Berchini@asu.edu / 602-543-6091).
If you are coming from off campus and need parking, please let us know.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities
FIFTY YEARS

HUMANITIES
EXPLORE SHARE EXPERIENCE

MUSEUM of NORTHERN ARIZONA

Celebrating the Colorado Plateau

HUMANITIES GRANTS WORKSHOP

Friday, August 26th

11:00am-1:00pm

The Museum of Northern Arizona - Branigar Hall
3101 N. Ft. Valley Rd. Flagstaff, AZ 86001

Brown Bag Session with Light Refreshments Served

In partnership with Museum of Northern Arizona

Join us for a workshop and information session to explore grant opportunities with the National Endowment for the Humanities and Arizona Humanities. Meet with representatives from both agencies to learn more about funding for humanities programs you are already running or looking to start. The workshop is free and open to all! Community organizations such as nonprofits, libraries, museums, tribal entities, community colleges, universities, and professors are encouraged to attend.

Seating is limited.

RSVP to: Ellie Hutchison
(ehutchison@azhumanities.org /
602-257-0335 x26)