

RECLAIMING HISTORY

Stories of Courage & Resilience

The Reclaiming History project is a youth-led series of community engagements that explore & celebrate experiences within Latinx & LGBTQ+ culture. All community members are encouraged to join us in lifting up these stories through group discussions, documentary screenings, & poetry readings facilitated by local university professors, artists, & community organizers.

free EVENTS

- n o v 1 Exploring Who We Are & Why We Migrate
hosted by Dago Bailon, Jonathan Beebe Giudice & TQP
- d e c 6 Unpacking Gender & Celebrating LGBTQ+ Heroes
hosted by Dago Bailon, Jonathan Beebe Giudice & TQP
- j a n 3 Don't Tell Anyone (No le Digas a Nadie)
documentary screening & filmmaker Q&A
- f e b 7 LGBTQ+ Love Poetry Workshop
hosted by NAU Professor Dr Heather Martel & local poets
- m a r 7 Mass Incarceration & Latinx Communities
a conversation with ASU Professor Dr Alan Gomez
- a p r 4 Exploring Hidden Figures from LGBTQ+ History
host TBA
- m a y 2 An Oral History of Latinx & LGBTQ+ Youth in Surprise
hosted by local youth

presented by

presentations begin at

6:00<sup>P</sup><sub>M</sub>

at the

SURPRISE SENIOR CENTER

15832 N Hollyhock St

The information and opinions presented in seminars and classes by third-party organizations, at events on City owned property or facilities are just that, and should not be construed as City endorsed advice or representation of any particular product, business, company, individual, organization or affiliation, opinion, belief or otherwise. The City does not endorse any particular business, product or speaker, or any statement or content presented by them. Any information presented does not reflect the opinion or position of the City. Minors are encouraged to notify their parents of their potential attendance at an event including the subject matter to be presented before attending.